

APA Quiz Answers

Determine if each of the following examples are correct or not ... APA Style.

- 1) According to Meyer (2012), “Angry people always take their anger out on someone because what is in us does come out of us.” (p. 5).

Answer: No, it should have no period before the end quotes.

According to Meyer (2012), “Angry people always take their anger out on someone because what is in us does come out of us” (p. 5).

- 2) Meyer (2012, p. 5) knows that “angry people always take their anger out on someone”; how should this impact our response to angry people?

Answer: No, the page number belongs after the quote.

Meyer (2012) knows that “angry people always take their anger out on someone” (p. 5); how should this impact our response to angry people?

- 3) She stated, “Angry people always take their anger out on someone” (Meyer, 2012, p. 5), but how should we respond to angry people?

Answer: Yes

- 4) Meyer’s (2012) experiences have led her to understand the following: “Angry people always take their anger out on someone because what is in us does come out of us. We may think we have our anger hidden from everyone, but it finds a way to express itself eventually. The things that happen to us are often not fair, but God will recompense us if we trust and obey Him.” (p. 5)

Answer: No, it should be indented with no quotation marks.

Meyer’s (2012) experiences have led her to understand the following: Angry people always take their anger out on someone because what is in us does come out of us. We may think we have our anger hidden from everyone, but it finds a way to express itself eventually. The things that happen to us are often not fair, but God will recompense us if we trust and obey Him. (p. 5)